Focal group PCAI as a) body mass difference (focal-opponent group [mg]) and b) opponent group PCAI varied. The fitted lines display the predicted and markers show the observed focal group PCAI. The parameter estimates used were estimated from separate analyses containing body mass difference for a) and opponent group PCAI for b), having established that each of these terms was significant in the minimum adequate model.